Gas Monopoly—Favoritism.

There have been complaints, many and loud, at the management of the Gas Company. For a long time we have been served with a very poor quality of gas, owing to the poor materials from which it is manufactured. The result is, that having a very poor quality of gas, it takes a great deal more to produce the same amount of light, than if the gas were of good quality.—And as a great many more cubic feet are burned to produce the necessary light than formerly, our monthly gas bills are much higher in consequence. The Company thus reap a double profit. They save in the cheapness of material from which they manufacture this gas, and gain by the greater amount consumed. And the public have to suffer for it, not only in purse, but in comfort, cleanliness and health. For the burning of this gas has created at times as much smoke as a sooty lamp, so that it has shed its dark flakes on wall, and paint and furniture, and filtered its sooty dust, through human lips and nostrils.

But this is not all. The Company has shown the rankest favoritism. It has run its pipes a whole block to accommodate a single house in the First Ward, and refused to go the same distance to accommodate ten families in the 4th Ward. They have run their pipes thro' Spring to Second street and down Second to the R. R. Depot, but refuse to continue up Spring to Third street, where ten families in close neighborhood want to use the gas.

The Company has the monopoly of the business, and now it snaps it fingers at our citizens, and says, "Gentlemen, we do business for our own accommodation, and not for the public's, and if you don't like our way of doing business, we don't care."

We don't complain of favoritism on our own account, for we are accommodated, at both house and office. But the Gas Company sho'd know that they are under some obligation to the public which it skins and smokes, and should be ready to skin and smoke all on equal terms.

Documentary History.

The design of Gov. FARWELL, in recommending such a work was well enough, but unfortunately, we had no one qualified to write such a book, who could or would undertake it. Gen. WM. R. SMITH, who had been for years a Clerk of the Senate, had come to be regarded too old for that post, and as nobody wanted him for anything, and he must be supported out of the State in some way, and as he was tho't by some to be a very learned man, his friends procured for him the appointment of State Historian, to write the Documentary History of this State. We have always doubted the qualifications of Gen. SMITH for such a work. He is too opinionated to be impartial, too supersaturated to be able to endure the labor and research necessary to procure the proper materials for such a work, and too prolix to write such a work if it is designed to be read. His work would be chiefly useful to the publishers, who get it up for $1,39 a volume, at the expense of the State, in a style just shabby enough to illustrate its real merits.

Last summer, when expressing our opinion that the chief object of the appointment was to pension the General on the State, one of our State officers replied with charming naiveté, "Are you so green as to have just made that discovery?" We think then that it would be far better to vote the General a good round salary to do nothing, than to let him continue his useless task of filling the insatiate maw of the State Printer, at the tune of ten or fifteen thousand dollars a year. It is time such folly were ended.

Prof. Spencer's Lectures & Experiments,

During the past week, have drawn very large audiences, in spite of the unfavorable weather. On Saturday evening, there was considerable excitement, in consequence of Mr. D. H. Waldo's statement. Mr. W. had been a subject, and gone thro' the motions, that evening, with great success. We believe that he was under influence, strongly, some of the time, and partially most of the time, and the fact that he remembers much of what occurred, during the experiments, is no proof to the contrary, for this often happens. Mr. Waldo thinks he was not specially influenced, because he was conscious all the time of what took place. But that is the usual phenomena.

On the other hand, Mr. William Westlake, whose integrity—as Mr. Waldo's—is unquestioned, declares that he knew nothing of what took place, from the time he went into the magnetic state till he came out of it—some two hours—save that he heard a great noise at one time—probably when Mr. Waldo arrested the pocket-book thief and dragged him on to the stage—but it was so indistinct and confused that he could not tell what it was.

Prof. Spencer, it will be seen, has quite a spicy card in another column. We are glad to see the interest manifested in this subject, and evidence light from any quarter which, in any wise illustrates the phenomena of the human mind. There is no necessity nor occasion for anger or undue excitement in pursuing these investigations, and, tho' we are not a Spiritualist, we want to see all parties treated fairly and candidly. We think Prof. Spencer's charges of infidelity against the leaders of Spiritualism, too broad and sweeping. We may be mistaken, and hold ourself open to conviction.

With Prof. Spencer's leave, we want at the conclusion of his lectures, this evening, say, five minutes time, to state some objections to his position, not for the purpose of controversy, but for explanation and answer on his part, that we may all know the truth. We trust that quietness and order will prevail this evening.

For the Free Democrat.

MADISON CORRESPONDENCE.

CAPITOL, March 10, '55.

By the list of bills passed you will see the House is not idle, and there is nothing to prevent the Legislature adjourning the coming week but the report on the Lunatic Asylum. By reference to the proceedings of the Senate it will be seen that one of the Balance members has introduced a resolution which, if passed, would extend the inquiry indefinitely.—This, of course, only confuses the impression, already very strong, that the Balance like investigation better in theory than practice. The evidence was all in on Saturday evening and the Com. proposed to proceed to discuss it and make up their report, but they have determined to have another hearing on Monday, which will delay matters until the very last of the week. It has leaked out from witnesses and others, that the whole scheme was one grand swindle from beginning to end, and probably the commissioners themselves, in their desire to reap a personal advantage from the thing, did not keep very good faith with each other.

The liquor bill was debated all the morning in the Senate and only two sections were passed upon. The friends of the measure are so entirely satisfied that Barstow would veto the bill as it passed the Assembly; that they have amended it by allowing beer, wine and cider to be sold under the most stringent provisions.—It was really quite amusing to see the anxiety of the Phor-tai members, lest the bill should not be sufficiently stringent. They betray, by their anxiety, what their policy was. Mr. Hadley made the same speech twice to-day that he made once yesterday. He is still obliged to deliver it slowly, but if the discussion continues some days, he will, by constantly using it, get it off quite glibly. It is a sort of compound of a second hand temperance speech, mixed with anxiety for his German fellow-citizens. It was a melancholy sight, however, to see grave Senators making zanies of themselves by frivolous amendments.

I think the German population will not thank Mr. Eldridge for his slur on them, by making them out the only drinkers of beer, and therefore needing a special provision.

One good thing for Milwaukee grew out of this debate. Mr. Hadley, when speaking of enforcement, said if the bill was passed, he would see its details carried out.

We had a little excitement in the afternoon, from the conduct of E. G. Ryan. He has been roaring in the Court below for some days, venting his spleen on the Court, the opposing counsel, and the world in general, in the famous Veeder case. In the afternoon, probably feeling an excess of bile, and wishing to vent it in some way, he came into the Assembly Chamber, and selecting the person who physically was least able to cope with him, he walked up to Mr. Watson and made an effort to spit in his face. Mr. Watson started forward and told him he was a coward. Ryan, standing at a respectable distance, made a face at Watson, and so the matter ended. For one, I have no patience with such a fellow. His excuse for this transaction is, a letter of Mr. Watson in the Sentinel, in which he says of him what every man feels. The fact is, he is a nuisance, and ought to be abated, and I only hope some one will take him in hand, and administer a little wholesome chastisement to him, as I understand was done in Chicago some years ago.

Having prostituted his abilities to support an infamous law, and finding the same measure meted out to him that always follows the servile tools of tyranny, he hates all decent men as heartily as all honorable men despise him.

Yours, W.

Public Meeting.

At a meeting held on the 10th inst., at the house of Prucius Putnam, Big Bend, of citizens of the towns of Mukwanago, Vernon and Waterford, who are injured in regard to health by the overflowing of their lands by means of a dam across Fox River at Waterford, known as the Waterford mill-dam, Sewel Andrews was chosen Chairman, and E. B. Thomas Secretary. The following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to procure the report of the Engineer, employed to survey Fox River from Waterford to Mukwanago Plank Road bridge, and also to report to an adjourned meeting the number of acres of land, as near as the same can be ascertained, injured by reason of the mill-dam at Waterford, overflowing the same and to report to said meeting a plan to have such injuries abated.

Resolved, That all persons who feel themselves aggrieved by the raising of the water by the Waterford dam, be and they are hereby invited to meet at the house of P. Putnam, on Thursday, 22d inst., at 1 o'clok P. M., for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee, and to take such decided action as the circumstances of the case may demand.

Resolved, That the papers in Milwaukee, Racine and Waukesha be requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion, J. H. Stickney, A. Putnam and E. B. Thomas were appointed the above Committee.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to Thursday, March 22d, 1 o'clock P. M.

SEWEL ANDREWS, Ch'n.

E. B. THOMAS, Sec'y.

SCHOOL LAND SALES IN THIS COUNTY.—In December last we noted the sale of a quantity of School Lands in this County, by Secretary Gray. Nearly all of the tracts were bid off at fair prices; competition was spirited. In a few instances, sales were made at more than $5 per acre. Persons residing here, who had the money in their pockets to pay for the land, we know bid as high as $5 per acre, but were overbid by gentlemen who residing elsewhere, and who, while here, were regarded as apologists for the State Administration. Now comes the rub. Instead of making them pay for the lands to bid off, or declaring their bids forfeited, and offering them again on the spot, Mr. Secretary Gray suffered them at some subsequent time to forfeit their bids, and the "Forty" have obtained the same land at the lowest rates prescribed by law!

This is a specimen of the Democracy—the School Fund guardianship—of the thieving Administration now in power in Wisconsin. Can honest men by their silence acquiesce in such performances?

Let the Legislature push on the investigations, and, if necessary, post sentinels to prevent the State officers from longer foraging upon the State Treasury.—Appleton Crescent (dem.)

AMENDED.—The Senate have amended the Liquor bill, so as to except from its provisions beer, cider and wine, of Wisconsin manufacture, by a vote of 13 to 12, in Committee of the Whole. We presume the Senate will pass it in that shape, and we think the Assembly will concur. Such a bill, it is believed, the Governor would sign. It is the Ohio Law, in substance, which is found to be very effectual, and though not a perfect law, it could be generally enforced.

COUNTERFEIT DOUBLE EAGLES.—The Buffalo Democracy cautions the public against counterfeit $20 pieces. They are of precisely the same circumference as the genuine coin, but not as thick. Being composed chiefly of gold, they are heavy, weighing about $13 or $14. Detection is easy, as, for some reason, the makers have placed the word "sold," in small, raised letters, at the lower edge of the head of Liberty.

Houston Reviewed by Garrison.

W. L. Garrison has reviewed the subject of Gen. Houston's late lecture on the subject of Slavery, at length, in a lecture before a very large audience at Tremont Temple, Boston.—He said, in commencing his lecture—We quote from the Telegraph.

Fellow Citizens, "The combat deepens:" "Thrice is he armed who hath his quarrel just, and he but naked, though locked up in in steel, whose conscience with injustice is corrupt."—God defend the right. (Applause.)

Standing as I do before you, not as the brazen apologist of slavery, but as the advocate of impartial liberty for the whole human race, only the sling of the stripling David is needed to bring the blaspheming Goliath to the ground; for though he may be six cubits and a span in height, and though he be armed with a coat of mail and have greaves of brass upon his legs, and though the staff of his spear may be like a weaver's beam, still he has a very soft spot in his forehead through which the stone of truth can easily penetrate with irresistible fatality.

Solomon, the ancient wise man, said that in his day there was nothing new under the sun. If he had lived in our times and in this country, he would not have so written. If he had been in this temple on Thursday evening, of last week, he would have witnessed a phenomenon never before exhibited to the popular gaze in this section—the appearance of a Southern slaveholder of distinguished celebrity and exalted position, before a Massachusetts audience in open and direct advocacy of slavery, as a beneficent institution to be perpetuated to the end of time. Of course it was to be expected that if he opened his mouth at all, it would be to speak exactly what he thought; for whatever else may be charged upon the Southern slaveholder, of one thing he is not guilty, and that is of being a dough face. It is always Southern back bone against Northern gristle. (Applause.)

Of course I allude to Gen. Houston, the Senator from Texas in the Congress of the U. S. In announcing my intention to review the speech made on that occasion, be assured it was not because, in itself considered, I deem it worthy of any notice; for it had neither reason nor argument, neither philosophy nor fact in it, and it would have been transcendently wicked if it had not been superlatively foolish. I feel, in undertaking to examine it, a sort of moral wrench given to my constitution. For, as the old Vermont farmer once said, there is nothing that so strains a man as to undertake to kick against nothing. (Laughter and applause.)

Why, then, do I undertake to reply to that speech? In the first place, because of the position of the speaker before this nation at the present time, and because he is regarded, in this section of the country as a man who is entitled to our great respect, on the ground of his being a better man, as a slaveholder than others who are also before the public gaze. I do so because of his reception in the city of Boston—a reception which I think will ever redound to the disgrace of our city. Here, in this hall, and professedly before an anti-slavery audience, cheered and applauded in the highest degree, cheered at the beginning of his infamous harangue, cheered at the conclusion thereof, and by the very same people, who, a few moments as it were, were carried away by their enthusiasm when the proposition was presented to them to sign a petition to remove Judge Loring, because he had consigned Anthony Burns to slavery. Such are some of the strange inconsistencies that exhibited themselves in our city.

Mr. Garrison contrasted the treatment which abolitionists receive of the South with that which was given to Gen. Houston quoting from the language of Foote to Hale, and from many of the Southern papers, political and religious. On the other hand Gen. Houston was treated as if he were the friend of liberty, of God and man, while he is the malignant enemy of all the three. The dastardly conduct and character of slaveholders was then portrayed in Mr. G.'s peculiarly strong style. Liberty of speech is taken away in one half the Union, as much as it is in Russia, or Austria, or Rome. He was glad Gen. Houston was treated with respect, but why did not the audience express their abhorrence of his abominable sentiment?

The doctrines of the speech of Gen. Houston were then taken up and commented on at great length, and answered by reference to authority taken from Southern papers, and the writings and speeches of Southern statesmen. The audience listened with evident interest to the discussion, and often applauded the sentiments of the speaker most heartily.

I thought it a good opportunity to lift the curtain and show you what are the real horrors of Slavery, and thus do something to hasten the jubilee of all who are in bondage. The final interest, the spirit of Slavery, is forever culminating in some particular man and, some particular measure; and it is sound policy to unmask the man or the measure without delay, and true wisdom to know when and where to strike the decisive blow. It is more and more manifest that Gen. Houston is to be used in the next presidential contest to conciliate the North and to secure another disastrous triumph for the blood-stained South.

Mr. Garrison then considered the topics suggested in Mr. Houston's speech, first commenting upon his statement with regard to his object in coming to Boston. There is but a step from the sublime to the ridiculous, and there is such a thing as a people's losing their self-respect, in their charity and magnanimity. The question of slavery is not debateable. All souls belong to God, and no sane man needs to be enlightened in regard to the crime of turning a human being into a piece of property. Why did Gen. Houston come to defend Slavery? Simply because he is, on the subject of Slavery, devoid of understanding,—literally a Know Nothing. He is to near Slavery to understand it.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Rason, of Milwaukee, and Mr. Naricong, of this village, are busily engaged at the Light-House. The timber is nearly ready, and as soon as the Lake opens, they will commence hauling and laying the stone. It will be a neat and substantial structure, and will be finished some time in June. It is to be located on "Grass Island," near the entrance to the harbor.

We have neglected to notice the new Dock and Warehouse which are being constructed for Chas. Doty, Esq., by Mr. Underwood, near the "little prairie."—Menasha Adv.

"MANITOWOC FLEET AHOY."—Capt. Jos. Edwards jr. left on Monday morning for Milwaukee, for the purpose of fitting out the Shr. Clipper City, having been engaged as master of that fine vessel by her owners Messrs. Platt and Bro. of this place. Capt. Hughes will sail the Transit owned by B. Jones & Co., and Capt. Hoag will sail the Col. Glover.—Manitowoc Trib.

A NEW LUMBER FIRM.—Capt. Clement, Capt. Cooper and Capt. Butlin, these old acquaintances of the travelling public, and universal favorites, have abandoned the decks of steamboats, formed themselves into a company, and engaged in the lumber trade at this point, under the name of Clement, Butlin & Co.—Chicago Press.

A DOG TRADE.—On Thursday of last week a negro, in New York, stole a dog, painted or stained it, took it back to its owner, and actually succeeded in selling him his own dog. The gentleman, however, discovered the trick, and forced the negro to refund part of the money.

We learn that some four or three weeks ago, a mad dog bit quite a number of cattle and hogs in the vicinity of Waterman's Mill, on the Head of Platte, that was killed by a fight with other dogs, who of course forfeited their lives. Several cattle went mad and died.—Platteville Journal.

MILLER'S STEAM CAR-BREAK.—By the politeness of Henry Miller, we were yesterday permitted to witness an experiment made with his patent car-break upon the Central Railroad. About fifty of our prominent citizens, together with several practical engineers and machinests were upon the train to which the break was affixed. At 2 o'clock P. M. the train started west, and when out about four miles, several experiments in stopping the train were made, with the most satisfactory results. When the train was moving at a speed of nearly thirty miles per hour, the appliance of the break brought the cars to a stand within seven hundred feet, and when going forty-five miles per hour, it was stopped within eight hundred feet, in thirty seconds. In consequence of the engine wheels being in bad order, no trial was made with the engine reversed, but those well acquainted with the matter, state that the limit can be greatly decreased.—Detroit Dem.

MONDAY.....MARCH 12.

Board of Trade.

The Board met at 3 o'clock, on Saturday—the President in the Chair—R. H. Strong appointed Secretary pro tem.

In pursuance of notice, given at the last meeting as required by the Constitution, Gen. Grant moved to amend Article 3 of the Constitution, so that the Board of Arbitrators be increased to seven, and the Board of Directors to nine. Mr. Goodrich moved to amend, so that the Board of Directors shall consist of 15, which was accepted by the mover, and the amendments were unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were elected additional Arbitrators, viz: L. H. Kellogg, W. J. Whaling, W. B. Alvord and H. Fess, Jr.; and the following as additional Directors, viz: N. Webster, J. G. Inbush, Byron Kilbourn, A. Whittemore, J. Plankinton, M. B. Medbury, E. H. Broadhead, L. L. Lee, E. P. Allis.

On motion of Mr. Higby, a Committee of Three were appointed to revise the Bye Laws, and report at next Meeting of the Board:—Messrs. L. J. Higby, H. Hill and W. B. Alvord, appointed.

On motion of Mr. Alvord the Committee on the General Statistics of the City be requested to report on the 25th inst., instead of 1st of April, as was first suggested.

On motion of Gen. Grant the Editors of the several city papers were elected honorary members of the Board.

On motion of Mr. Goodrich, the meeting adjourned to the 20th inst., at 7 o'clock P. M.

The Rooms of the Board are removed to the Second story, in Furlong's Block, where they have much more extended accommodation than at their former Rooms.

ARRESTED FOR KEEPING A HOUSE OF ILL FAME.—On Saturday afternoon, Under-Sheriff Beck arrested, in the town of Wauwatosa, "sleeky John," alias John Spencer, indicted at the recent session of the Grand Jury, for keeping a house of ill fame in the Second Ward.—When the officer stated his business to "sleeky John," the latter snatched a gun from the mantel-piece, and threatened to shoot the officer.—A "set to" ensued in which "sleeky John" was overpowered and taken to the buggy, awaiting to convey him to jail. On arriving at the vehicle he made fight again, striking the officer a severe blow in the face, but he was soon floored and handcuffed by the officer, who proceeded with him to the jail in this city without further molestation.

He has frequently boasted that "no one man could take him alive."

WEATHER.—The weather for the past day or two has been March to perfection. High winds, dark clouds, rain, sleet, hail, snow and mud have been its most attractive features. Jack Frost stiffened the mud considerably last night, but the heavens are still hung in black, as if mourning for some dear departed friend, and there is a gloomy haze in the atmosphere, which gives rise, in even light hearts, to sober and even sad reflections.

March is decidedly the most unpleasant and disagreeable month in the twelve, and if it were blotted from the calendar, why we should lose 31 days, an immense quantity of mud, a great deal of dismal weather and no small amount of sickness and death. Still as bad as the month is, we don't suppose it could well be spared.

Circuit Court.

The case of the alleged rioters, Messrs. Rycraft, Bingham and Co., still occupies the attention of the Court. The prosecution rested at 10½ A. M. and witnesses for the defence are testifying. But little seems to have been proved against the defendants.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The old Board of Aldermen meet this evening to close up their business and the new Board enter upon their duties tomorrow.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.—On Saturday, in the Circuit Court, Judge Hubbell presiding, on motion of J. H. Brownson, Esq., W. I. Brownson, Esq., of Boston, was admitted to practice at the Bar as an Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

FYLER FOUND GUILTY of the Murder of his Wife.—The Jury, in the case of Alfred Fyler, tried at Syracuse, N. Y., for the murder of his wife, returned a verdict of guilty, on the afternoon of the 9th inst. His sentence has been postponed till June, to test the question of his sanity.

FIFTY-SEVEN DOLLARS have just been appropriated for pens for the use of our Supreme Court. Our three Judges must do a power of writing.

THE following sale of Bonds was made at auction at New York on the 6th inst.: $2,000 Kenosha City R. R. Bonds, 7s, interest added, at 45.

THE total receipts of the Baptist Missionary Society, up to the first of February, were $7,279,16. And from the 1st April to 31st January, they were $61,897,46.

MCMAHAN SENTENCED.—McMahan, just convicted in Troy N. Y., for the murder of his wife, is sentenced to be hung on Friday, the 27th of April.

HORACE GREELEY is to lecture before the Young Men's Association, at Madison, next Saturday evening.

FIRE AT CHICAGO.—The clothing store of S. M. Bros, at Chicago, was nearly destroyed by fire on Friday night last.

DEATH.—Rev. Frederick T. Gray died from cancer in the stomach, at Boston, on the 9th inst.

NEAL DOW.—The Chicago Tribune says that Neal Dow talks of visiting that State this Spring.

People stay willing where they are commanded kindly.

A Card from Prof. Spencer.

To the Ladies and Gentlemen of Milwaukee:

On Saturday evening last, Mr. WALDO, an individual whom I had heard spoken of as an honorable man, came forward among other persons, to be placed under psychological impression. After a time he seemed to be controlled and influenced by my will, and went through with several experiments in such a manner as to leave no doubt on my mind that he was really under my power. A time passed, and I brought him from the psychological condition, and he distinctly declared on his honor, that he did not know where his pocket-book was—whether he had left it at home or not.—He went and charged a gentlemen with having taken it from him—said he believed he had it.

A deception does not prove that all men are deceived—a lie proves not there is no truth—a counterfeit does not prove that there is no genuine. Now what advantage has this been to Mr. Waldo? or what has it proved to the audience? That all others have deceived in this? That there is no truth in psychology? This is an absurdity too preposterous for an intelligent mind.

There is no doubt in my own opinion, that Mr. Waldo was for a time, under my influence. The first reason for this opinion is this: He could not act the characters he assumed, half as well, in his natural state. He has neither the tact, the talent or the ability. He cannot do it now, nor did he do it then. My second reason is; he manifested the usual appearance of persons in the psychological state. My third and last reason is—the fact that he could not remember the most important and best character he assumed, that of the old man. Indeed, he did not remember many of the first acts he performed, until he was told by gentlemen on the seat near which he was standing.

Some may enquire—If Mr. Waldo was in the psychological state, how did he get out of it? It is a fact well known to all persons acquainted with Mesmerism and Psychology, that subjects do often pass from under control, in a manner that cannot be accounted for. I believe that Mr. Waldo passed out at the time he was endeavoring to hit the hat.

I desire to say to the ladies and gentlemen, whom I have had the pleasure of meeting in my Lecture Room, that I am among you, not to deceive you, but to teach what I believe to be truth, and dispel what I believe to be error. It is too late, now-a-days, for an intelligent mind to deny the general truths of Psychology, or that one man may, under circumstances, have control and power over another. These facts are denied only by the ignorant, or by those who have not and will not investigate.

Spiritualism is quite another thing. Its dogmas are fatal to the well-being of society. Its doctrines strike at the truths of revelation, and deny inspiration, the age of miracles, and boldly set forth that Jesus Christ, the immaculate Son of God, was but a man. Its leading advocates are open and avowed infidels. It is a delusion, and an error that is corrupting the fountains of the human mind, a pestilence more fatal and deadly than the "Bohon Upas," or the Syroc, or the Simoon of the desert. Shun it, as you would a viper's sting. Flee from it as from a pestilence. This error of the age shall be swept away by the light of investigation, while the eternal truths of God, as set forth in his record, shall shine forever in the light of their own immortality.

Yours most truly,

E. M. SMITH SPENCER.

The Lake Superior Mining News says that an Indian, near Ontonagon, committed suicide by hanging himself in the woods. He had been attacked by the small pox, which is circulating in that vicinity, and became so depressed in spirits that he determined on putting an end to his own life and the disease. In the afternoon he drove all the other Indians from the camp, and taking his faithful dog with him into the bush, first hung him to the limb of a tree, and then suspended himself. When found both were dead.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Staunton Spectator, states that the Rev. Mr. Brown, of Bath Co., Va., married a couple a few days since across a river—that is, the parson was on one side and the bridegroom and his dulcinea on the other. This mode was resorted to on account of the water being impassable. The license was thrown across the stream by the bridegroom, after having wrapped it tightly around a stone.

PROGRESS OF REFORM IN N. Y.—The Tribune says that on the first eight Sundays in 1854 the arrests in the City were nerly 900; on the first eight Sundays in 1855 they were 338.—Last year the Sunday arrests averaged over a hundred; this year, less than forty-five. Last year the police were lax; this year they are strict, and arrests are more than twice as numerous in proportion to the amout of crime.

IT is now believed that twenty volumes will hardly contain all the MS. of the Emperor Bonaparte collected by Louis Napoleon. Many letters, &c., written by the Emperor, are in a text hardly legible, it is only with the greatest difficulty that the exact words are made out.

ST. CLAIR FLATS.—The New-York papers assert positively that the President has signed the bill for the improvement of St. Clair Flats the St. Mary's River. This bill gives $45,000 for the opening of a channel on the St. Clair Flats.

A BOY named Wallace, aged 12 years, deliberately shot his twin brother, at Ohio, Mohawk Co., N. Y., a short time since. The little Cain committed the murder in the presence of his mother, who was unable to prevent it.

APPOINTMENT.—SIMEON MILLS, of Madison has received the appointment of receiver of the land office at La Point. Mr M. is an Anti-Nebraska Democrat

Washington Irving has nearly completed a life of Washington, upon which he has been long engaged.

ELEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS have been subscribed towards erecting a M. E. Church at Hudson, St. Croix Co.

FIRE.—Saturday evening, at about 8 o'clock, the house occupied by Mr. Braasch, on Second street, was discovered to be on fire. The fire was communicated from the stove-pipe to the roof, and was extinguished without its spreading to any great damage.—Hudson North Star, 10th ult.

SHE DID.

BY SOLOMON.

Stars were beaming—Lone gleaming,
I was dreaming,
Dreams as sweet
As the olden
Summers golden,
That have rolled on
Still, yet fleet.

Then from Aiden
Came a maiden,— (Beauty laden
Girl was she;
Glorious creature!
Each fair feature
A love-teacher!—)
Unto me.

'Close beside me,'—
Who dare chide me?
'Here, Love, hide thee'
Blushes—Grace!
It confesses
How her tresses
With caresses
Touched my face.

There's no praising
The amazing
Bright eyes gazing
Into mine,
Lips whose meetness,
Whose replenitess
Of all sweetness,
Were divine?

But she waited,
Meditated;
I,—elated—
Gently chid:
Smiling, told her
No one older
Would behold her,
If she did.

Nearer, nearer,
Softer, clearer,
Warmer, dearer,
Came her breath!—
Then forgetting
All regretting,
Angels letting
Her,—Oh! Death!

Still she waited,
He-itated,
Said she hated
To; I cbid,
She grew willing,
Oh 'twas thrilling!
Dream fulfilling!
For she DID."

LAKE MICHIGAN STEAMERS.—The Traveller, Arctic, Cleveland, and Pacific, are being placed in first rate order for the coming season's service upon this lake, and we wish them a lucky and succesful summer. Capt. Clement and Capt. Ward are both here, and it is their intention to commence running the boats at the first of next week if the weather continues favorable. The ice in the lake is fast disappearing.

The four steamers are to be commanded as follows: the Arctic by Capt. Joseph Nicholson, formerly her first mate and one of the rescuers of the crew of the schooner Merchant; the Traveler by Capt. Jones, last season captain of the E. K. Collins; The Pacific by Capt. Clark, who held the same position last year; and the Cleveland by Capt. Green, formerly upon Lake Ontario—Chicago Press 10th inst.

TRUTH WILL OUT.—'Mother sent me,' said a little girl to a neighbor, 'to ask you to come and take tea with her this evening.'

'Did she say at what time, my dear?'

'No, ma,am? she only said she would ask you, and than the thing would be off her mind; that was all she said.'

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Advices from Mexico to Feb. 19 represent Santa Anna as daily losing, and Alvarez gaining ground.

Santa Anna has sent what he could of the $7,000,000 from the United States out of the country, together with all of his valuables, and has sold the $3,000,000 yet to be paid to Mexico from the United States.

Some change has been made in the management of the Kinney expedition, but the distinction remains the same.

The rumor that Jeff. Davis will presently or ultimately receive the appointment of Brigadier General of the new regiment is untrue.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Among the most important bill introduced at the close of the session, was a bill to repeal the neutrality laws by Senator Brown, of Mississippi. He proposed to repeal such section of the laws as restrained our citizens from giving aid and comfort to the people of Cuba. Mr. Brown said that the Spanish in Cuba, have insulted our flag, imprisoned our people, searched our ships, and pilfuged our mails, yet government does not move. Under these circumstances he is for letting slip the dogs of war in the shape of fillibusters.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Pacific Bank has lost $18,000 by embezzlement of one of its Clerks, Jno. Barney, who has absconded.

MILWAUKEE COMMERCIAL RECORD.

Weekly Commercial Review.

Office of the Free Democrat,
MILWAUKEE, MARCH, 12, 1855.

Winter has at last been forced to relinquish his rigid sway, and the sweet breath of spring once more fans the earth, and inspires thousands of her inhabitants with new life and brighter hopes.

Business begins to revive quite perceptibly, but receipts are quite small, owing to a great extent to the bad condition of the roads.

All kinds of produce bear highly remunerative prices as wheat and pork have sensibly advanced—the former having been in good demand at 1,20@1,30 for spring, an 1,30@1,45 for winter. Pork has brought 4,50@5,00 per bbl.

Navigation, between here and Chicago, is about to be resumed, and a boat was expected in from the latter place, this evening, but an unfavorable turn in the weather, undoubtedly, prevented her leaving. Vessels are now plying between Racine and Chicago. The American Transportation Company will commence running a line of propellers between Buffalo and Milwaukee—making this city its western terminus—as soon as navigation is open through the straits. This will promote the business interests of Milwaukee very materially, and is what she has long needed.

F. BROWN'S

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

THIS ESSENCE is a preparation of unusual excellence. In ordinary diarrhœa, incipient cholera, in short, in all cases of prostration of the digestive functions, it is of inestimable value. During the prevalence of epidemic cholera and summer complaints of children it is peculiarly efficacious; no family, individual or traveler should be without it, as it enables the system to resist the influence of incipient diseases which lurk in a changing climate.

CAUTION.—Be sure to get the genuine essence, which is prepared only by F. Brown, at his Drug and Chemical Store, N. E. Corner of Fifth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia and in Milwaukee by H. Buswell & Sons, Lake & Williams; in Madison by John Wright; Racine by F. W. De Berrard; Kenosha by F. Robinson; Sheboygan by Long & Davis. n44-1y
